The 2nd International Conference on Smart Data Intelligence [ICSMDI 2022] organized by Kongunadu College of Engineering and Technology at Trichy, Tamil Nadu, India aims at delivering the perspective of "Intelligent Data Science", where it is focused on State-of-the-art research, algorithmic design, data analysis and implementation on various real-time applications.

CALL FOR PAPER

Data Engineering

Big Data Analytics
Data Integration and Interoperability
Smart Data Grids and Processing
Web data mining and Information extraction
Smart Information Retrieval and Integration
Smart Data management and workflows
Advanced Query Processing and Optimization
Data Mining and Knowledge Discovery

Computational Intelligence

Machine Learning for Database Systems
Semantic Web
Deep learning
Statistical and Reinforcement learning
Data-driven Fuzzy Systems Design
Artificial Neural Network
Social Networks Visualization and Analysis
Supervised and Unsupervised Learning
High performance computing
